

Corporate Retreat with wide range of Treasure Hunting Events

As all of us aware, Treasure Hunt has been a common name given to various types of hunting events. The purpose of hunting events could fulfill some of these objectives; annual retreat, family day, team bonding, competition, exploration, soft skills development and for other purposes.

However, there is great diversity in the range of hunting events available at market place. As such, in this article we will walk through on most popular types of hunting events organized throughout the world.

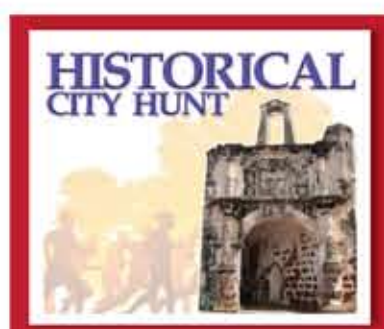

Walk a Hunt

Still one of the most famous whereby family members or staff has to walk from one location to another, to identify answer for hunting questions. This session is usually designed to be within 3 – 4 hours. This is suitable for all and can be organized anywhere.

Family Hunt

This could be a real retreat for family members because it is time for family bonding. Family members need to hunt for locations and overcome certain challenges throughout the event. Normally it takes 2 to 4 hours and it is suitable for all ages.

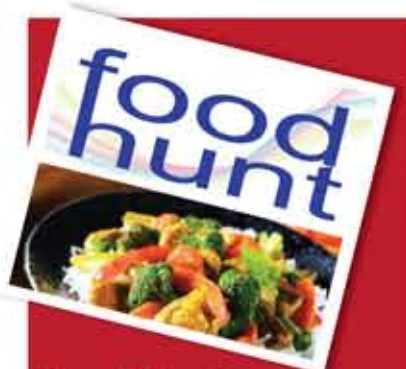

Historical Hunt

Most popular among tourist and also during company trip, whereby participants got the opportunity to visit various historical places during the hunting event. Historical Hunt could range from ½ day to one full day. Melaka is the most popular spot for such event.

Charity Hunt

If your organization is planning for charity or other good cause, Charity Hunt would be a good choice. Many non-profit organization are engaging Charity Hunt for fund raising or other specific purpose.

Food Hunt

This type of hunting activity is popular for places that known for wide range of food; kuih, local breakfast, local to international tastes and fruits. Hunting team has to hunt for food either by looking for answer for questions given or to savor food of different tastes. Food hunt is very popular in Penang, and it is suitable for all age group.

Shopping Hunt

Hunting event that is organized within a single location, either in a Shopping Mall or a Supermarket. Participants need to look for shops, products or pricing details throughout the hunt. At the same time, they have to purchase items from a single shop at certain value. This is suitable for everyone, and choices of location depends on approval given by Shopping centre management.
